

DOG SCHOOL

Dog School Coach Temporary (1 year contract) Full Time (40h)

Dogs Trust Ireland CLG is currently recruiting for a Coach for Dogs Trust Dog School which delivers dog training and human education for dog owners in their local communities and online. This is an exciting opportunity and would suit someone who is highly motivated and confident, and a quick learner with a keen interest in administration, dog training and canine welfare.

The successful applicant will be part of Dog School, working alongside Head Coach, another fellow coach, the Dogs Trust team in Dublin, with the additional support from the team in the UK. The successful candidate will be a self-motivator with huge amounts of energy, strong interpersonal skills and be an all-round team player.

The successful candidate will have exceptional customer service skills, administrative experience (particularly using different IT systems), excellent communication and interpersonal skills and a proven ability to use their own initiative.

If you are interested in working at the forefront of dog welfare, where you will have opportunities for furthering your skills with continuing professional development, please apply.

All applicants must have a full clean manual driving license.
